THE SPARTAN SCENE

The student at Roger Bacon finds many activities in addition to his studies which occupy his time. These activities are considered important in shaping his character. Here is a capsule view of the year at Roger Bacon as the Spartans study, pray, work and play.

A black and white photograph of a student, likely a member of the Spartans, standing outdoors. The student is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, letterman-style jacket with a large, dark, outlined letter 'B' on the front. The student's arms are crossed over their chest. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting at night or in low light. The student's face is partially visible at the top of the frame, smiling slightly. The overall tone of the image is serious but positive, reflecting the 'Spartan' theme of the page.

JUNE, THE FINAL TOUCH

THE ACADEMICALLY ALERT SPARTAN

Alertness in learning is of the utmost importance at Roger Bacon, and the Spartan undertakes his work in school quite seriously. Before all else come the classes and the books. The Spartan sees his work in high school as a step to the future. No matter what his ambition may be, the academically alert Spartan can prepare himself adequately in the intellectual air that is diffused throughout Roger Bacon High School

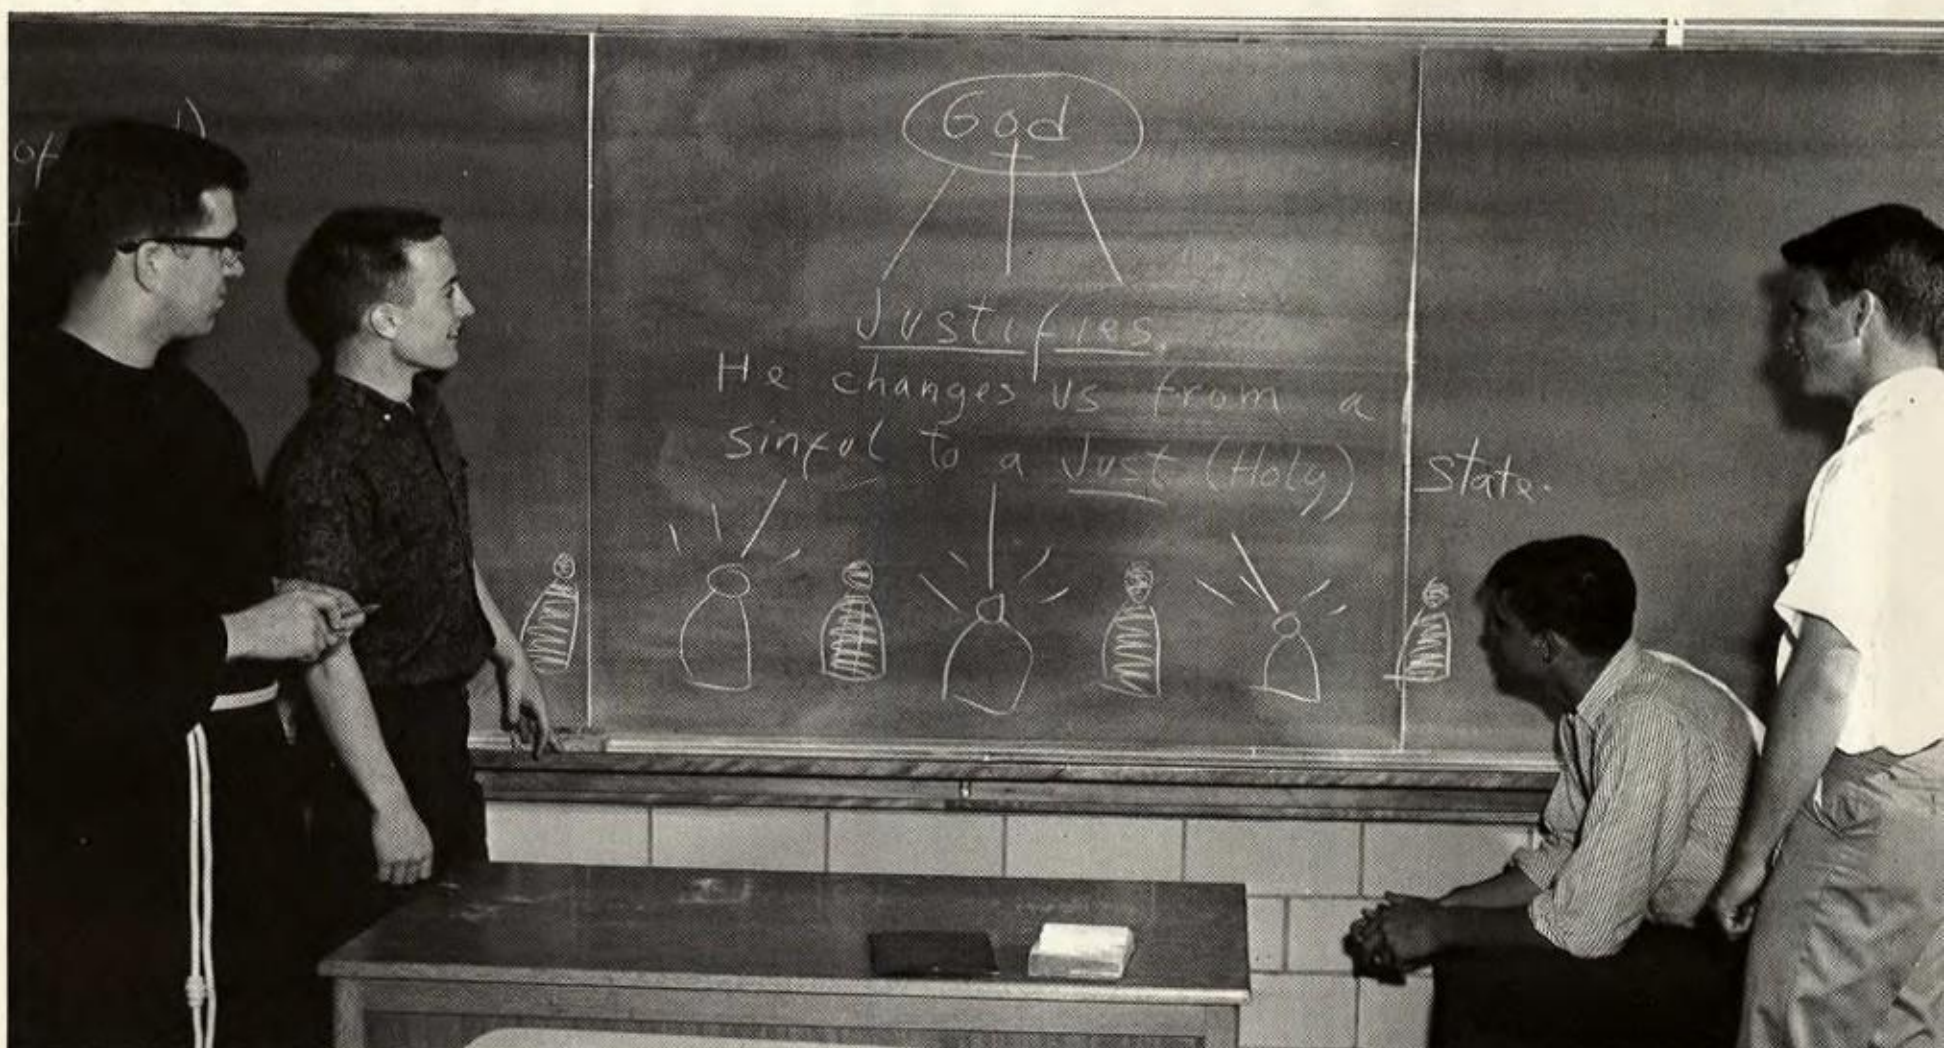

Although the content of the religion courses differs tremendously from the subject matter of the courses in social studies, nevertheless, both of these areas of study prepare the Spartan for his future. Religion prepares the Spartan for that Life which is unchangeable, eternal, and perfect; and social studies makes ready the Spartan for that life which is variable, temporary, and proximate.

THE SPARTAN LEARNS THE WAYS OF GOD

Fr. Venard shows the juniors Roger Bacon's new chalice.

With the aid of Fr. Alton, the sophomores learn about the nature of God.

LANGUAGE ARTS, FOCUS

Is Fr. Manfred looking for "vir in Machina?"

Is someone taking a siesta in Spanish class?

Fr. Corman and seniors G. Flory, R. Agricola, W. Dehmer and R. Louis read an epic in English literature class.

Whatever the language, English, French, Spanish, or Latin, its essential purpose is communication. Through the use of team teaching and audio equipment, the students at Roger Bacon learn both the beauty and use of their own language and tongues of foreign lands. To produce intelligent and articulate Christians is the aim of the language-arts program at Roger Bacon.

What interesting passage has caught the complete attention of Fr. Sigfried's French class?

"Send Me No Flowers" is a three-act lively farce representing implausible people going through unbelievable antics, to the delight of Roger Bacon audiences.

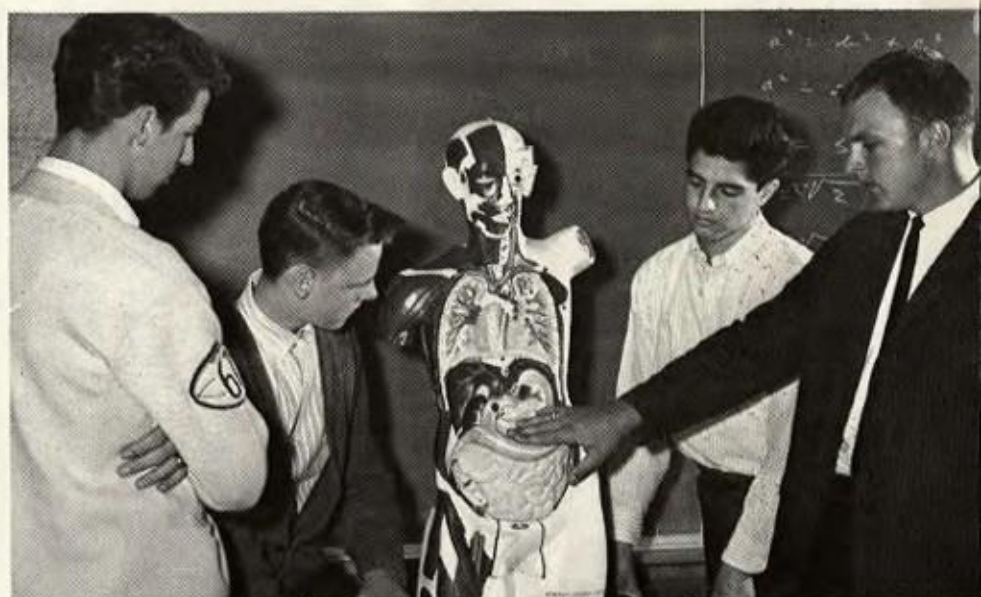

Steve Poehner, Mike Grause and Fr. Diego keep tab on an important experiment.

Fr. Laurian's electricity class discovers the wonders of a Wimshurst machine.

Mr. Lehr discusses the complexity of the digestive system in health class.

Mr. Haupt explains the workings of nature to the biology students.

Physics students pay close attention to one of Fr. Mario's experiments.

Fr. Bert graphs the inverse cosine for the calculus class.

The educated Spartan strives for knowledge of self and the world around him. Physics, the study of motion; chemistry, the study of matter; biology, the study of life; health; and mathematics all contribute to the Spartan's understanding of himself and his environment. Indirectly, these studies give the student a better understanding and fuller appreciation of the Creator. Roger Bacon has an advanced placement program in which qualified students may receive college credits in mathematics.

Freshman math students, Kerry Rabe and James Richmond, solve problems for Fr. Cullan.

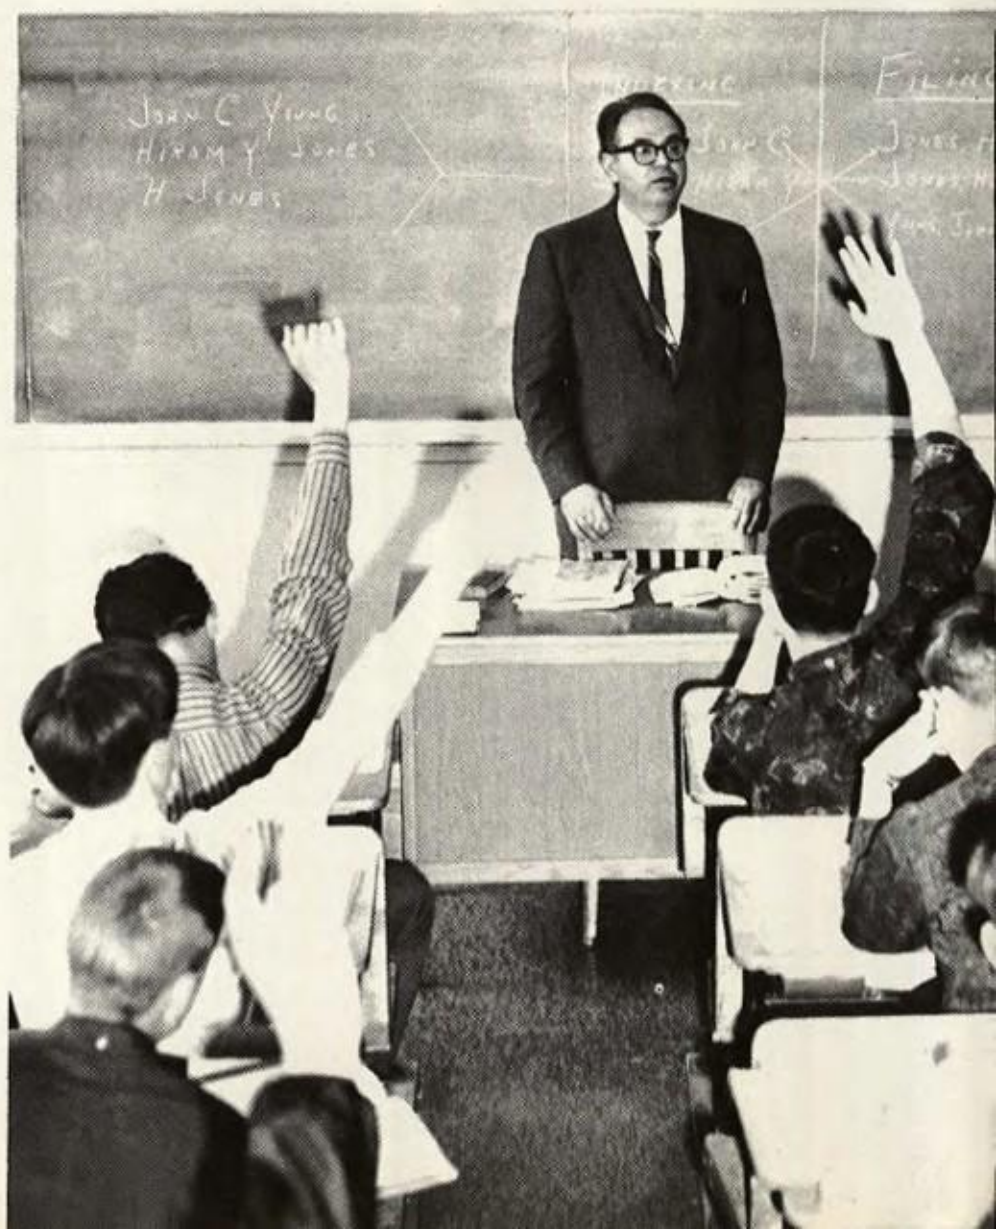

Mr. Fenton oversees the students in his typing class.

Accounting students learn how to use ledgers from Mr. McGee.

Business courses at Roger Bacon are designed to prepare the student for the business world of today as well as college. The practical value of these business courses is easily seen. The art course, however, is different because the practical uses of this course are limited. This course is designed to increase the Spartan's appreciation of all beauty. All of these courses complement each other in the transformation of the student to a mature adult.

Mr. Meyer teaches the freshmen the basics of business.

Fr. Marcos gives pointers in art class.

Art students work on their masterpieces.

The mechanical drawing class builds a miniature motel under Mr. Neal's supervision.

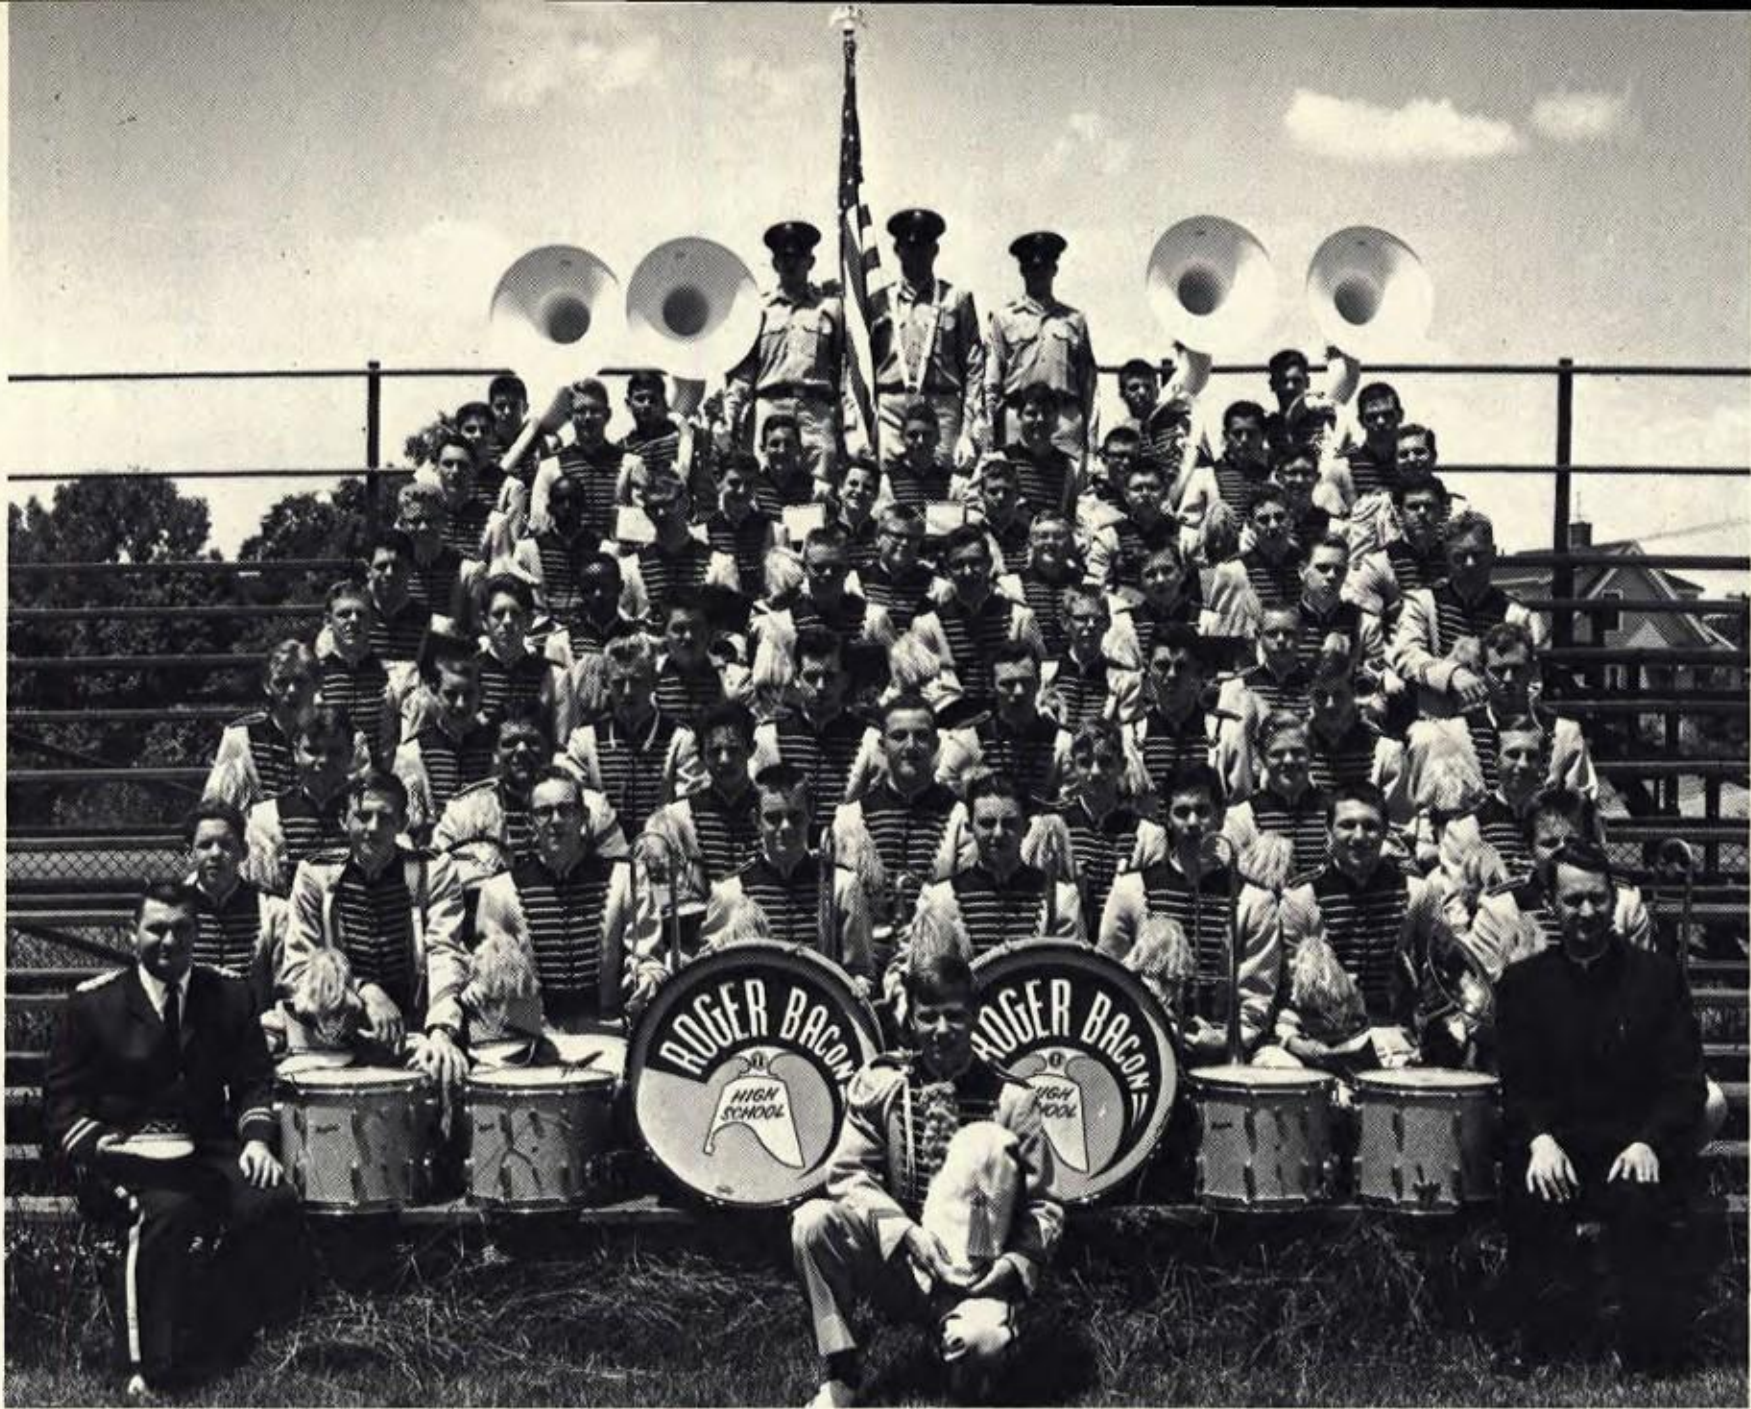

The Roger Bacon Band is, without doubt, one of the most active and accomplished student groups in the school. In addition to its fine performances during football season, the Band was featured at the Xavier University Catholic Music Festival as well as our own Music-Art Festival. In addition to these performances the Spartan Band gave concerts at a number of the girls' high schools in the area. These are only a few of the accomplishments of the best band in memory.

Since one of the school's most important functions is to prepare its students for the future, Roger Bacon's counseling facilities provide the students with their guidepost to tomorrow. The guidance office has information on any occupation, school, or training program.

JUNIOR SPARTAN PLAYERS

Composed of underclassmen, the Junior Spartan Players present enjoyable one-act plays, skits, and monologues for the freshman and sophomore audiences. These informal performances not only entertain their audiences, but also they teach the young Spartan self-confidence in public speaking and poise before a critical audience. The regular appearances of the Junior Spartan Players serve also as a preparation for senior dramatics.

COMPETITION BUILDS COMPETENCE

The Spartan learns to face intellectual as well as athletic competition. "It's Academic," the yearly speech contest and the annual spelling bee are the more important contests that give the student of Roger Bacon an opportunity to use both his knowledge and his ability to express that knowledge in the battle of wits.

Speech contest winners are junior Thomas Fry, sophomore Thomas Sutphin, senior Gregroy Staley, and freshman Richard Kerin.

THE SPIRITUALLY SOUND SPARTAN

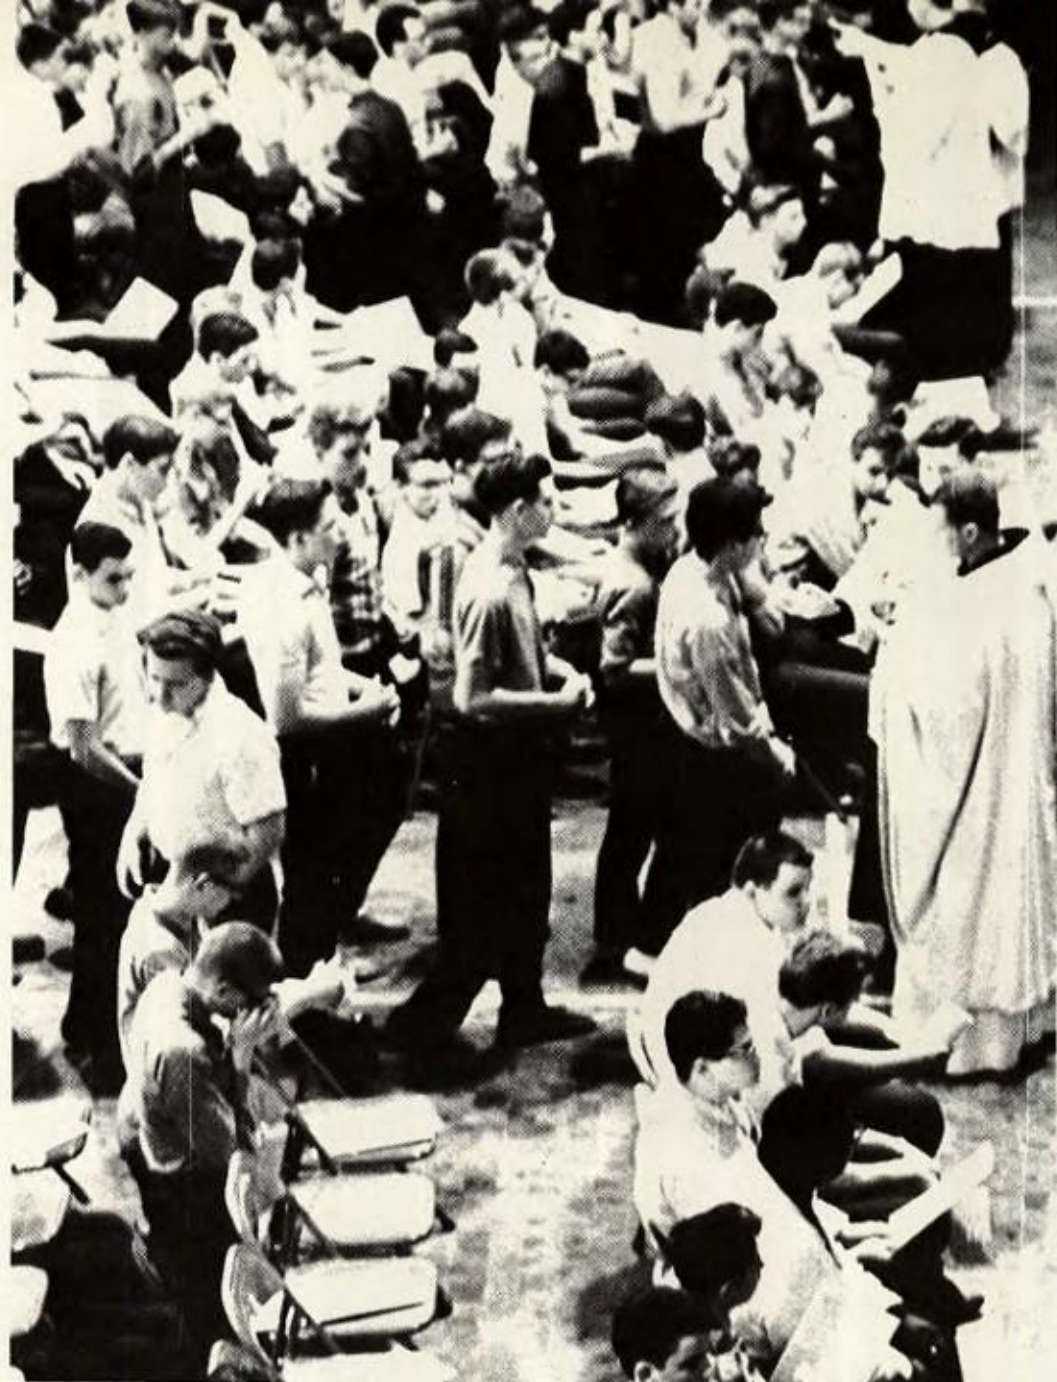

Being a Catholic high school, Roger Bacon has as an important purpose the spiritual development of its students. The healthy Christian atmosphere of classes, clubs, sports, and social affairs together with the opportunities of the sacraments and spiritual guidance which the school avails to the students are aimed at building today's Spartan into tomorrow's leading Catholic.

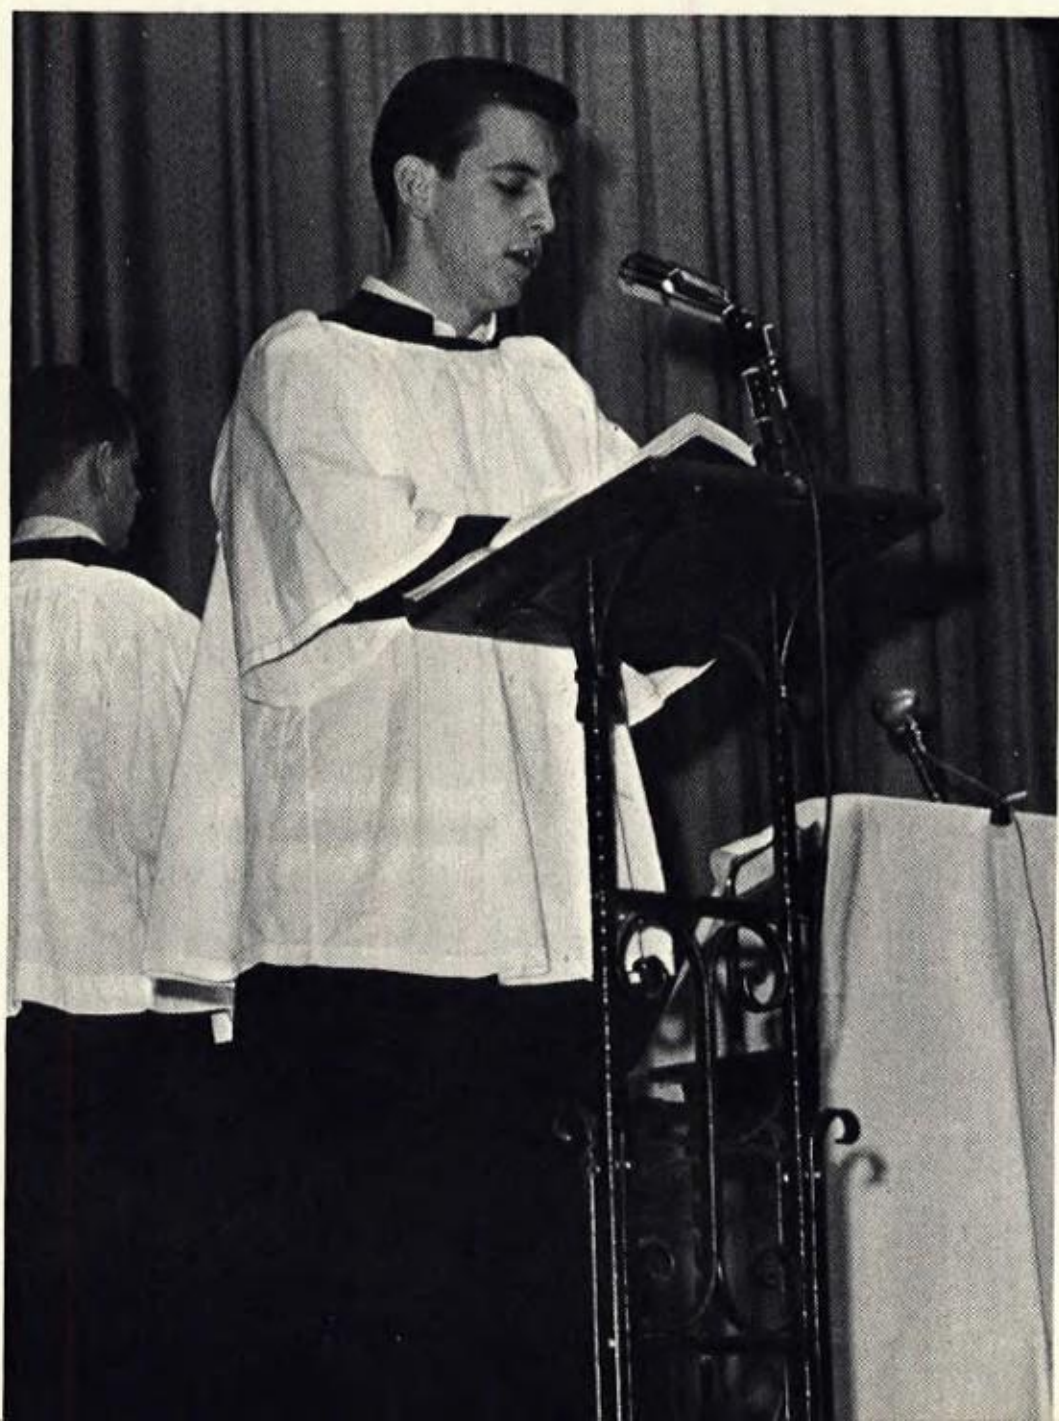

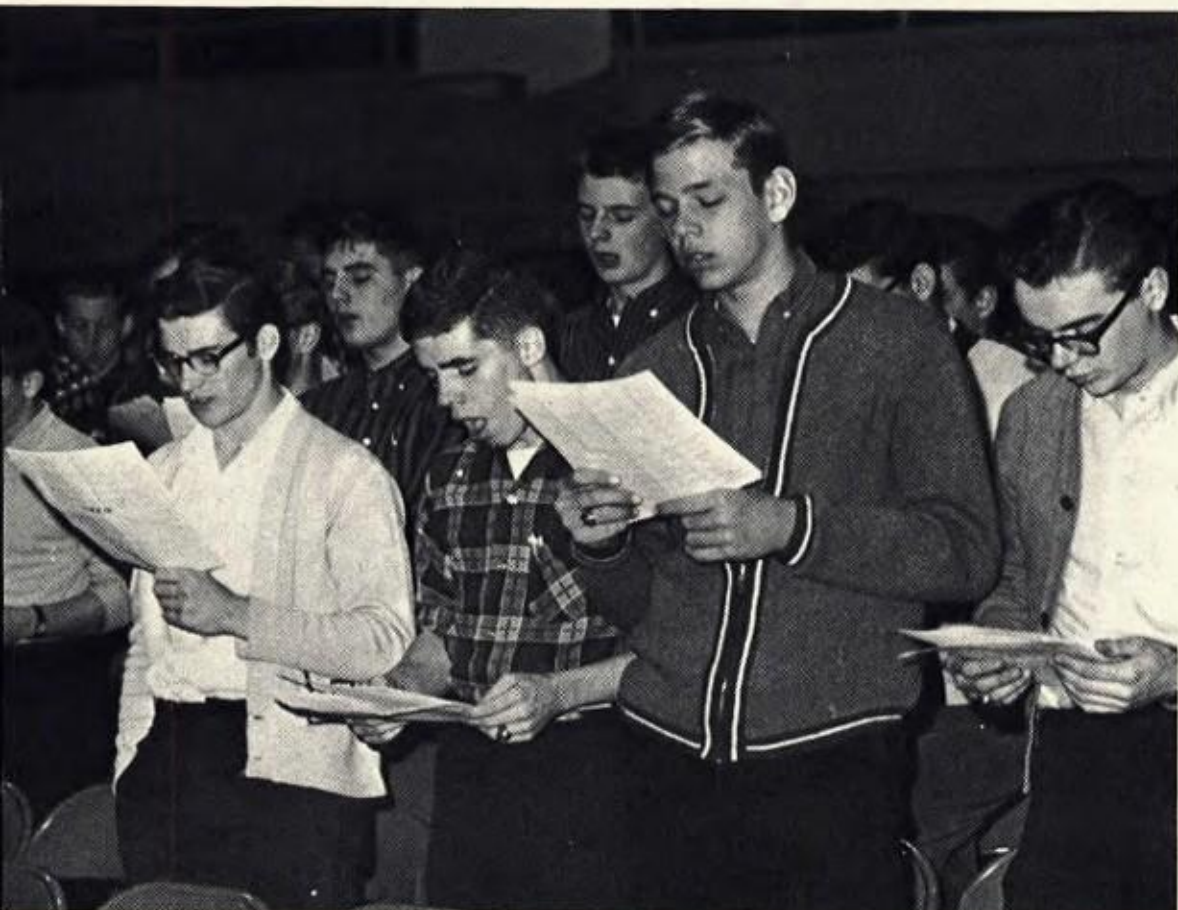

FIRST FRIDAYS

As a public act of devotion to the Sacred Heart, the student body at Roger Bacon participates in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on the first Friday of each month. The students are given the opportunity to prepare themselves for this communal Act the preceding day by the reception of the Sacrament of Penance. The Grace which comes through these exercises truly help to make the student a spiritually sound Spartan.

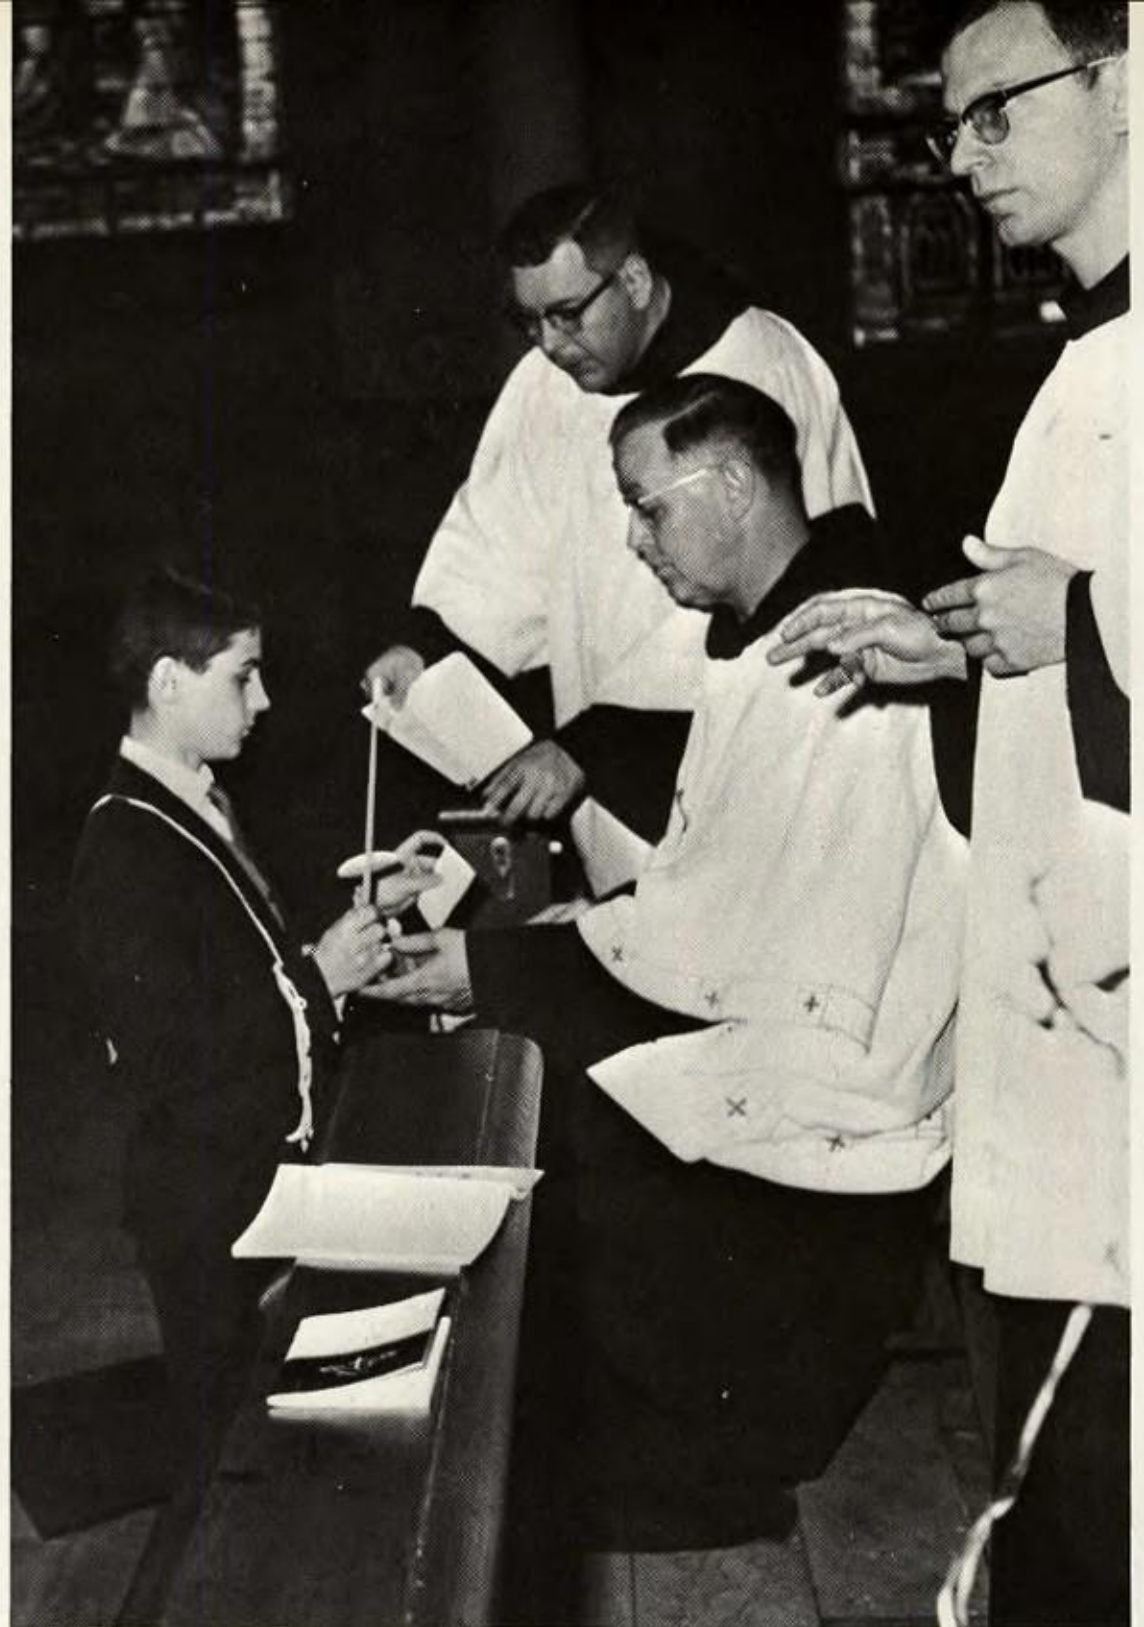

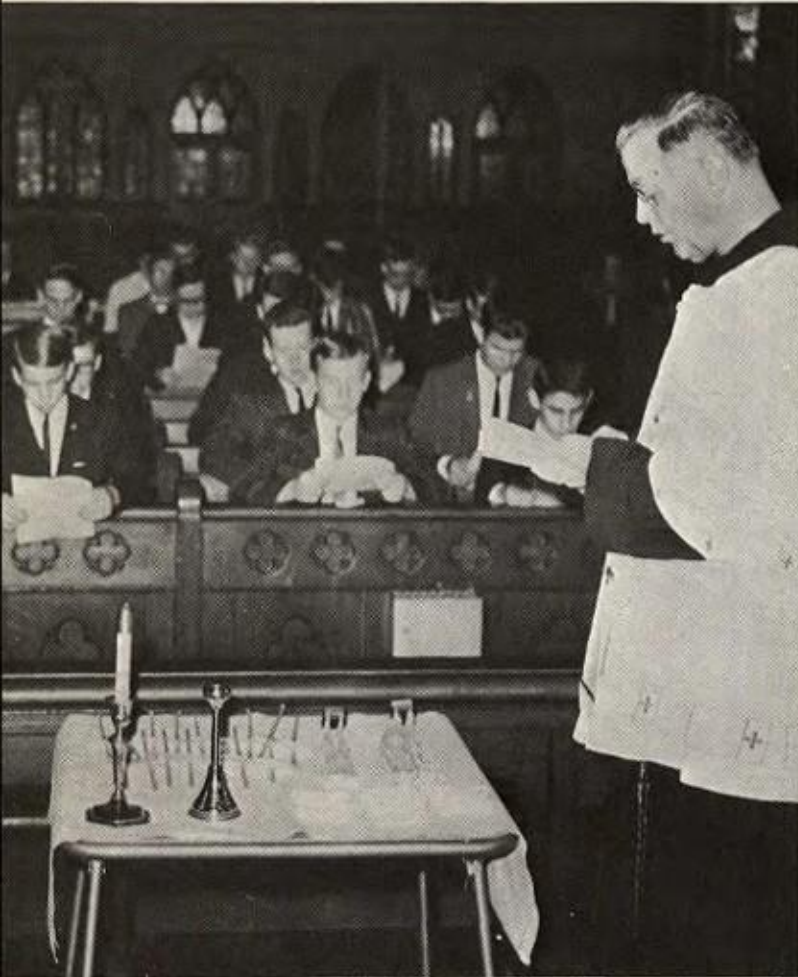

In order to understand more clearly the history of man's salvation given in Holy Scripture, the Religious Council conducted Bible Services. Reading of Sacred Scripture, meditation on God's Word, singing of hymns, and a short sermon aid in bringing the Spartan closer to God through His Word.

BIBLE SERVICES

FRANCISCAN THIRD ORDER

Christ commanded His followers, "Be ye perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect." The Third Order of Saint Francis at Roger Bacon attempts to help its members attain perfection. The Queen of Peace fraternity consists of about thirty novices and six tertiaries. The members attend a conference once a month in addition to other functions throughout the year. The Third Order provides, not only religious exercises, but also social gatherings to help mold all the facets of the tertiary's character through the Franciscan ideals of poverty, chastity, and obedience.

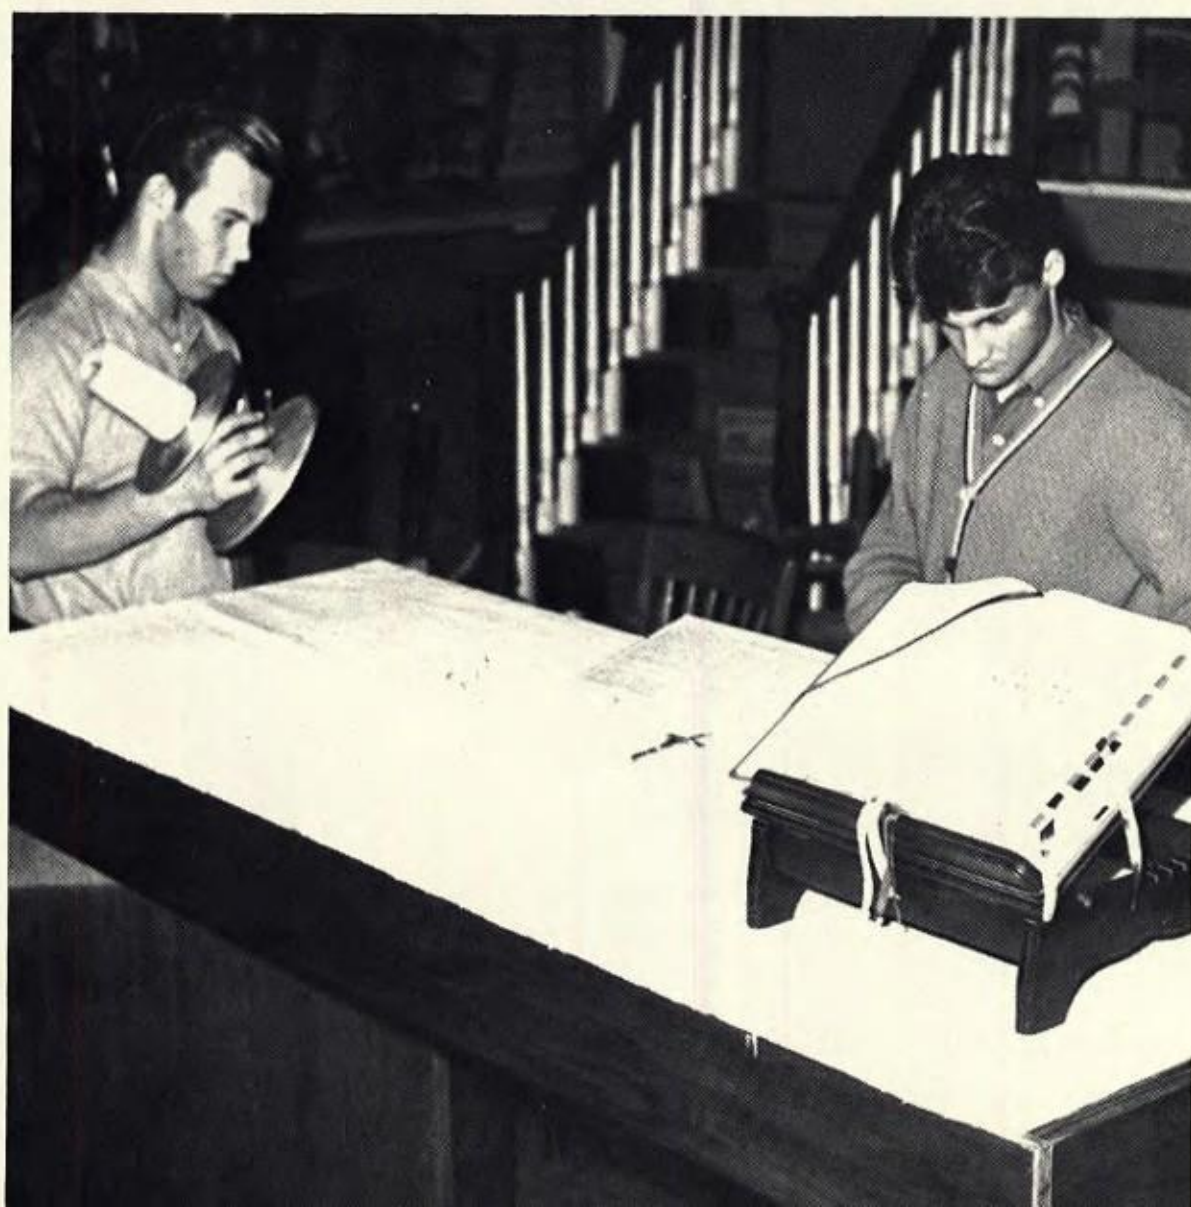

Religious Council members: L. Westerbeck, M. Rohling, B. Weiss, G. Hilsinger, J. Huhn, T. Lamarre, R. Agricola, B. Hartman, B. Westendorf, G. Flory.

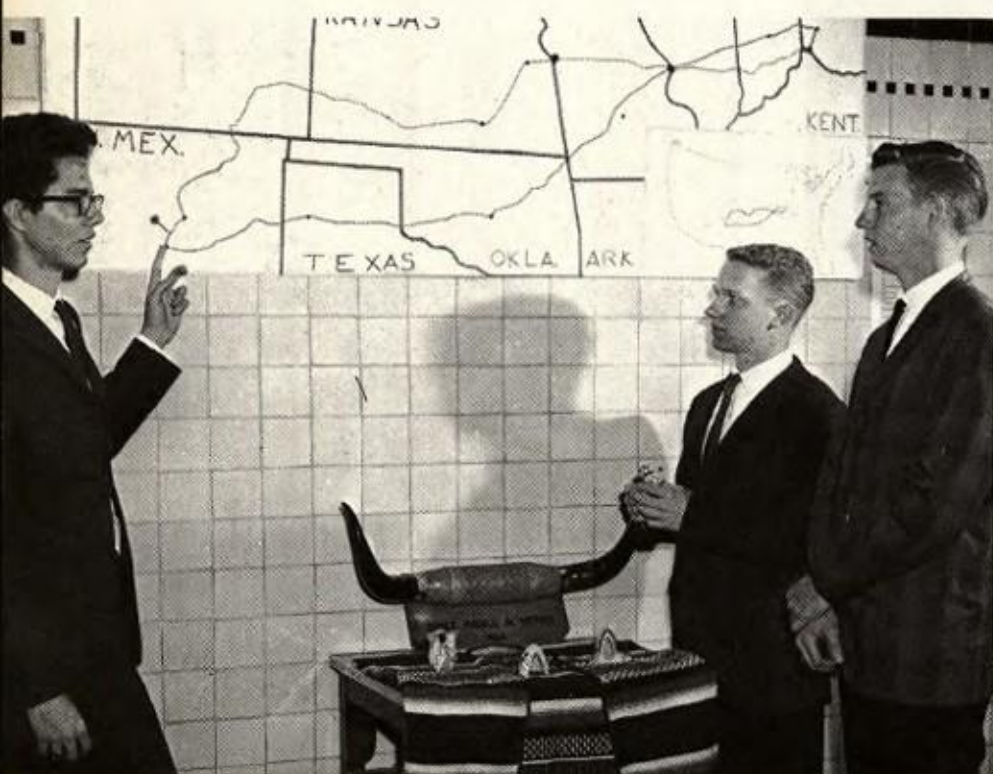

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The responsibilities of the members of the Religious Council include such tasks as preparing the altar for Mass and ushering students to their places at the first Friday Masses. These duties along with others help to prepare these Spartans for the future religious obligations which they will encounter.

Tom Vollmar shows Fr. Cullan and members of the C.S.M.C. the route of his summer trip to the missions.

The Catholic Students Mission Crusade, through its talent shows, contests, and collections, has sent a considerable amount of money, food, and clothing overseas for the world's needy. Lectures and movies sponsored by the C.S.M.C. have acquainted the students of Roger Bacon with the problems of other Christians in other lands.

C.S.M.C.

C.S.M.C. members make plans for a talent show.

RELIGIOUS COUNSELING

Whatever the problem may be, the Spartan takes advantage of the assistance and sincere interest offered by both the priests and the lay teachers at Roger Bacon. An essential and growing part of the religious counseling program is the invitation of prominent laymen to speak before the students to aid them in their spiritual development. The student body is also assembled regularly for conferences on the Christian Life.

SCHOOL AND CLOSED RETREATS

As a businessman takes inventory of his stock, the Spartan considers his religious attitudes, motives, and goals during the annual retreat. For three days, homework, athletics, and social activities are put aside while the students attend Mass, read, meditate, seek advice, and attend lectures given by the retreat master and laymen. While the underclassmen attend the January school retreat, a limited number of seniors attend a three-day closed retreat at Friarhurst Retreat House. The school retreat this year was preached by Father Norman Perry, O.F.M., a graduate of Roger Bacon.

THE PHYSICALLY ACTIVE SPARTAN

Be it serious competition, vigorous exercise, or wholesome fun the Spartan is involved in a variety of physical activities. The end products of the Spartan's energetic nature, whether by leading the team to victory or simply participating in physical education class, are the formation of good sportsmanship and the development of sound health.

This year the Spartan football team, under the leadership of co-captains Ray Niemeyer, Terry Cummings, and Jim Brockman, made it their fourth G.C.L. crown in a row only sharing honors with Elder. This year's team had its stars as did other teams, having All-American Dave Foley as the forerunner. Other outstanding Spartans were Bob Salt, Bill Bolduc, Jim Brockman, and Mel Frederick. Special tribute is due to those members of the "red shirt" teams and especially the seniors who took all the beating while others played in the games.

BACON UPSET BY ST. XAVIER

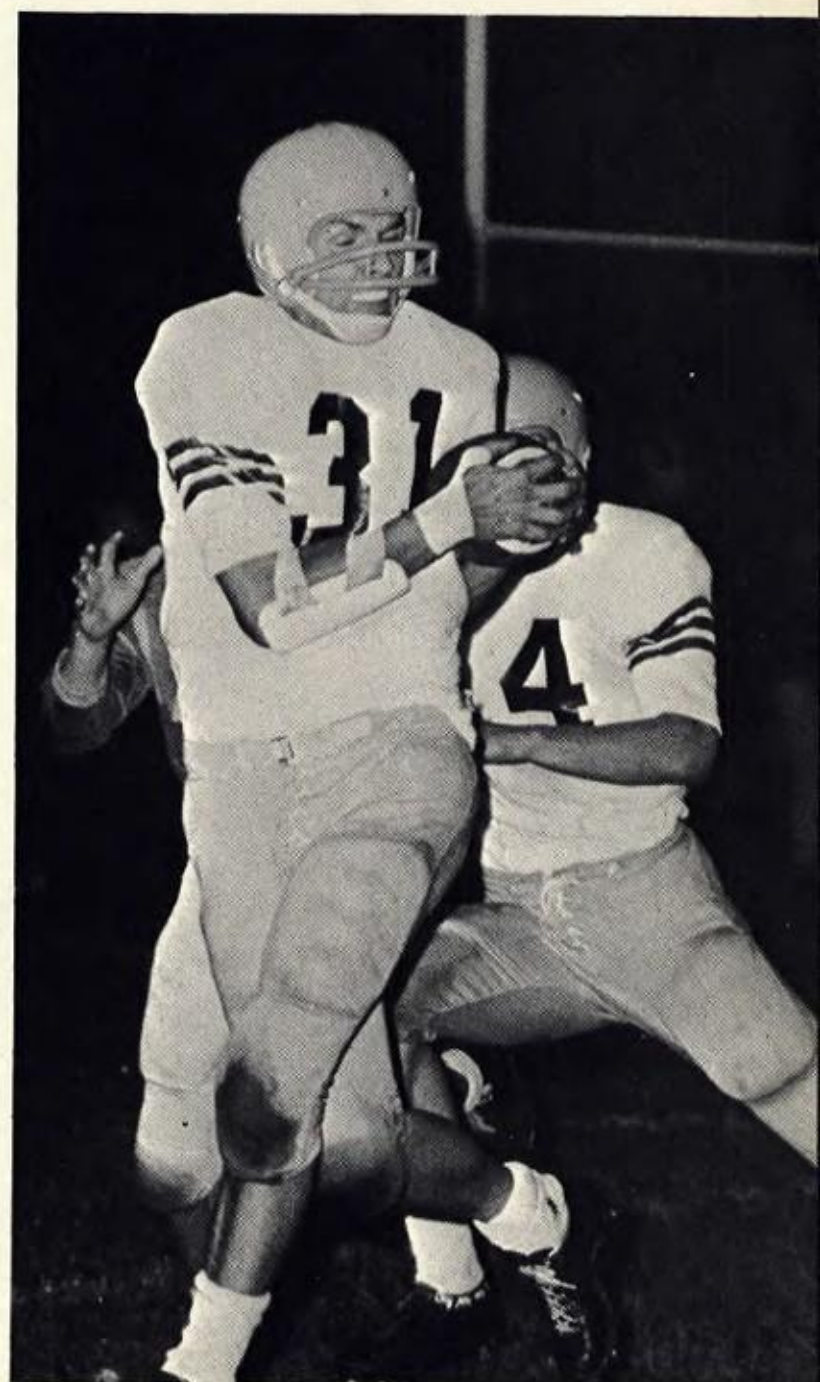

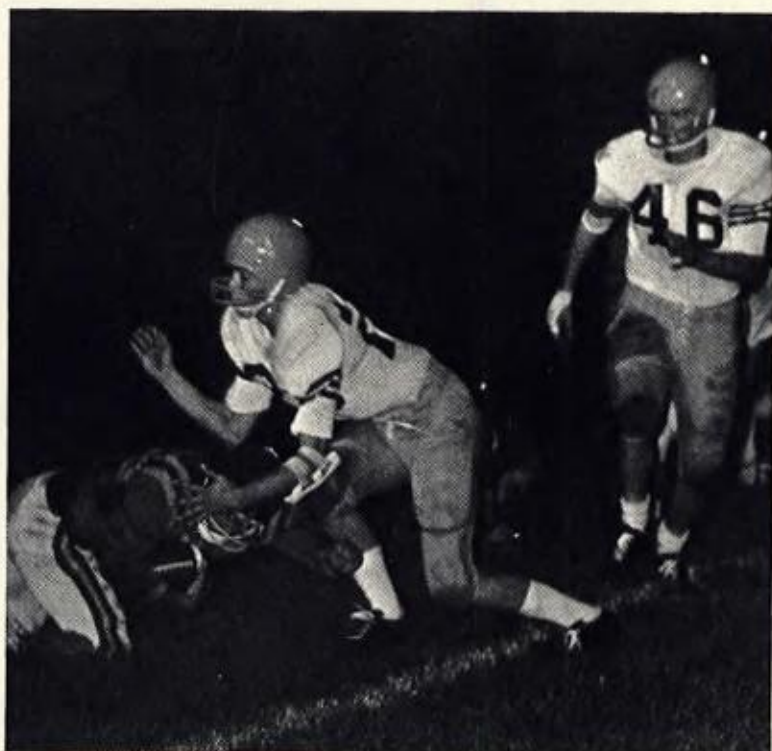

A two-point conversion proved to be the deciding factor as the St. Xavier Bombers upset the Spartans. Mel Frederick hit Bill Bolduc on a 49-yard touchdown pass, but the conversion attempt failed. The Bombers struck back immediately with eight points. The Bombers again struck with a 33-yard touchdown pass. The Spartans recovered a Xavier fumble on the Bomber 45-yard line and went on to eight points, only to remain two down.

SPARTANS BOUNCE BACK AGAINST CRUSADERS

The Spartans used a powerful ground attack to shut out the Moeller Crusaders 22-0. In the second quarter the Spartans marched 94 yards for a TD. Bob Sayne scored with a three-yard plunge off tackle. The Spartans' second TD came in the third quarter when Frederick hit Nick Munafò for a 12-yard score. In the final quarter the Spartans marched 77 yards for the final tally, a seven-yard dive play by Don Drott.

BACON EXPLODES ROCKETS, THEN THE CAVALIERS

Two passes, two runs, and one interception led the Spartans to a victory over McNicholas, 36-0. Terry Cummings and Bolduc caught end zone passes from Frederick. Bolduc also scored two other TDs, a 60-yard run and a one-yard plunge. The final TD came as the result of Gerry Schoettmer's interception, which he returned 42-yards for the score. The Spartans made it four wins out of five as they overtook Purcell 37-6. Bolduc led the scorers with three touchdowns while Munafo and Bently Broussard had one each.

THIS TIME IT'S BACON

The Spartans showed their power to the northern team before an overflow crowd. Frederick hit Dan Danzinger for a 26-yard touchdown pass. Later Niles dropped Frederick for a safety. After Niles scored, Munafa intercepted a pass and Bolduc later ran 24-yards for the TD. Niles struck back for their second score. On the last play of the half Frederick hit Munafa on a 23-yard touchdown pass which decided the outcome of the game. Neither team scored in the second half.

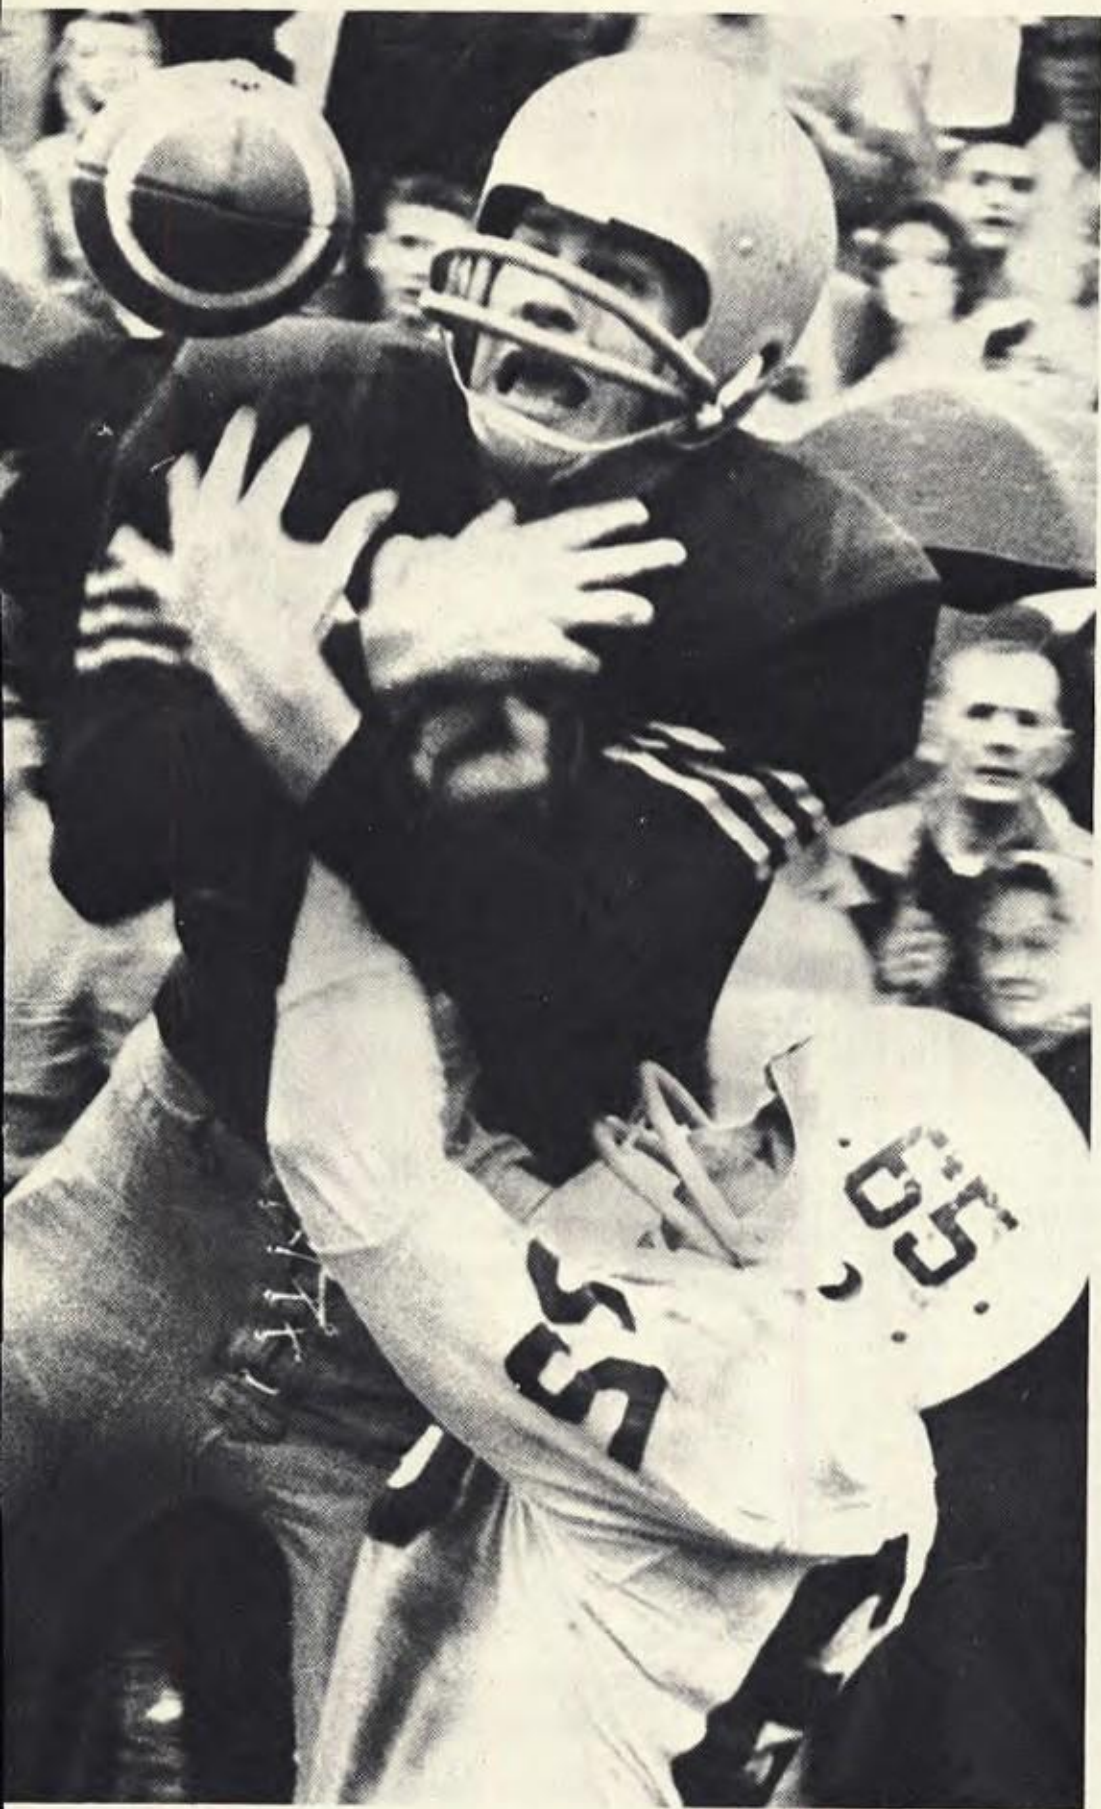

A second quarter touchdown by Munafo proved to be all the Spartans could accumulate while defeating the Fighting Irish of Toledo Central Catholic, 6-0. The lonesome score by the speedy halfback climaxed a 50-yard drive. The victory upped the Spartans' record to six wins and one loss.

The Spartans added another victory by a win over the Lancers of LaSalle, 32-0. Bolduc and Drott accommodated for all the touchdowns made at the Elder stadium. Each accommodated for two.

R.B. CAGES PANTHERS SNAGS CO-CHAMPIONSHIP

When the clock stopped Bacon reigned as co-champions with Elder in the G.C.L. with an 8-0 victory before a rainsoaked and overflowing homecoming crowd. The touchdown came when Mel Frederick hit Bill Bolduc on a screen play, a 59 yard score. The only other score came in the fourth quarter when defensive end Bob Salt and Gerry Schoettmer dropped the Elder signal called for a two point safety.

BASKETBALL 1965

The Spartan basketball team finished with a winning season for their departing coach Neal Connor. The hoopsters, behind the big center Tom Rohling, showed good spirit and enthusiasm throughout the year by giving every opponent a difficult time. Only three seniors represented the graduating class on the basketball team. These seniors were Tom Rohling, Jim Klus, and Bob Hericks. Even though the team had its ups and downs during the season, the cagers worked hard from November through February and they ended with a winning season.

Dave Foley warms up for the shotput.

The Spartan cindermen won their second straight G.C.L. track championship. In the G.C.L. track meet Dave Foley was the attraction in the shotput event with a record-breaking heave of 62 feet 1--1 1/2 inches. He later went on to break the high school state shotput record by a foot and one inch at the state finals in Columbus. The team, under co-captains Dave Foley, Nick Munafo, and Phil Seyller, had excellent showings at every meet. Other outstanding athletes were Dave Andriacco and Jim Breyer.

THE SOCIALLY ADJUSTED SPARTAN

The true Spartan is not only disciplined in mind and body through study and activity, but he is disciplined in his relationships to his fellow men. The true Spartan serves his fellow men because he is interested in them. In short, the real student at Roger Bacon High School is a socially adjusted Spartan.

Wasn't that funny?

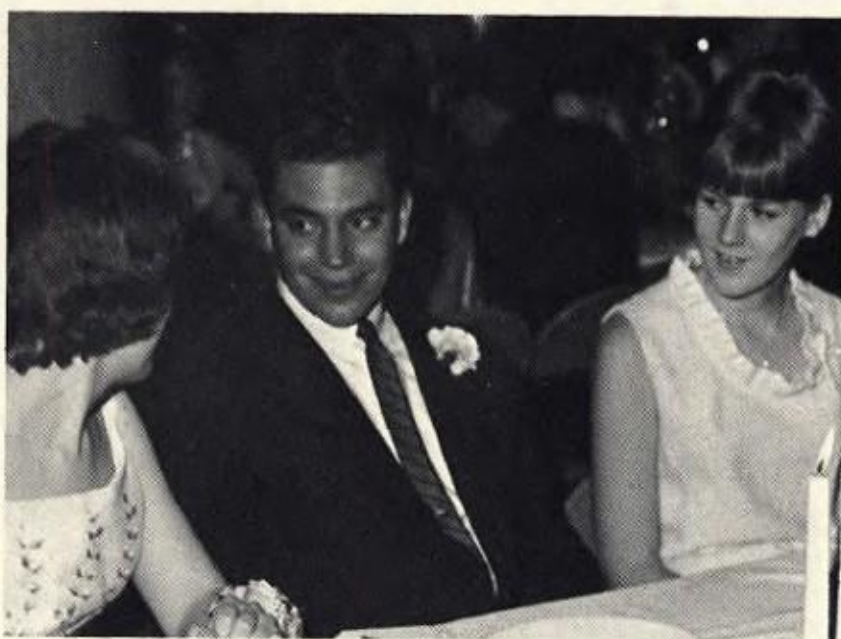

Tom Lamarre and his date at the Christmas Semi-formal.

Bob Leist seems to be in good company.

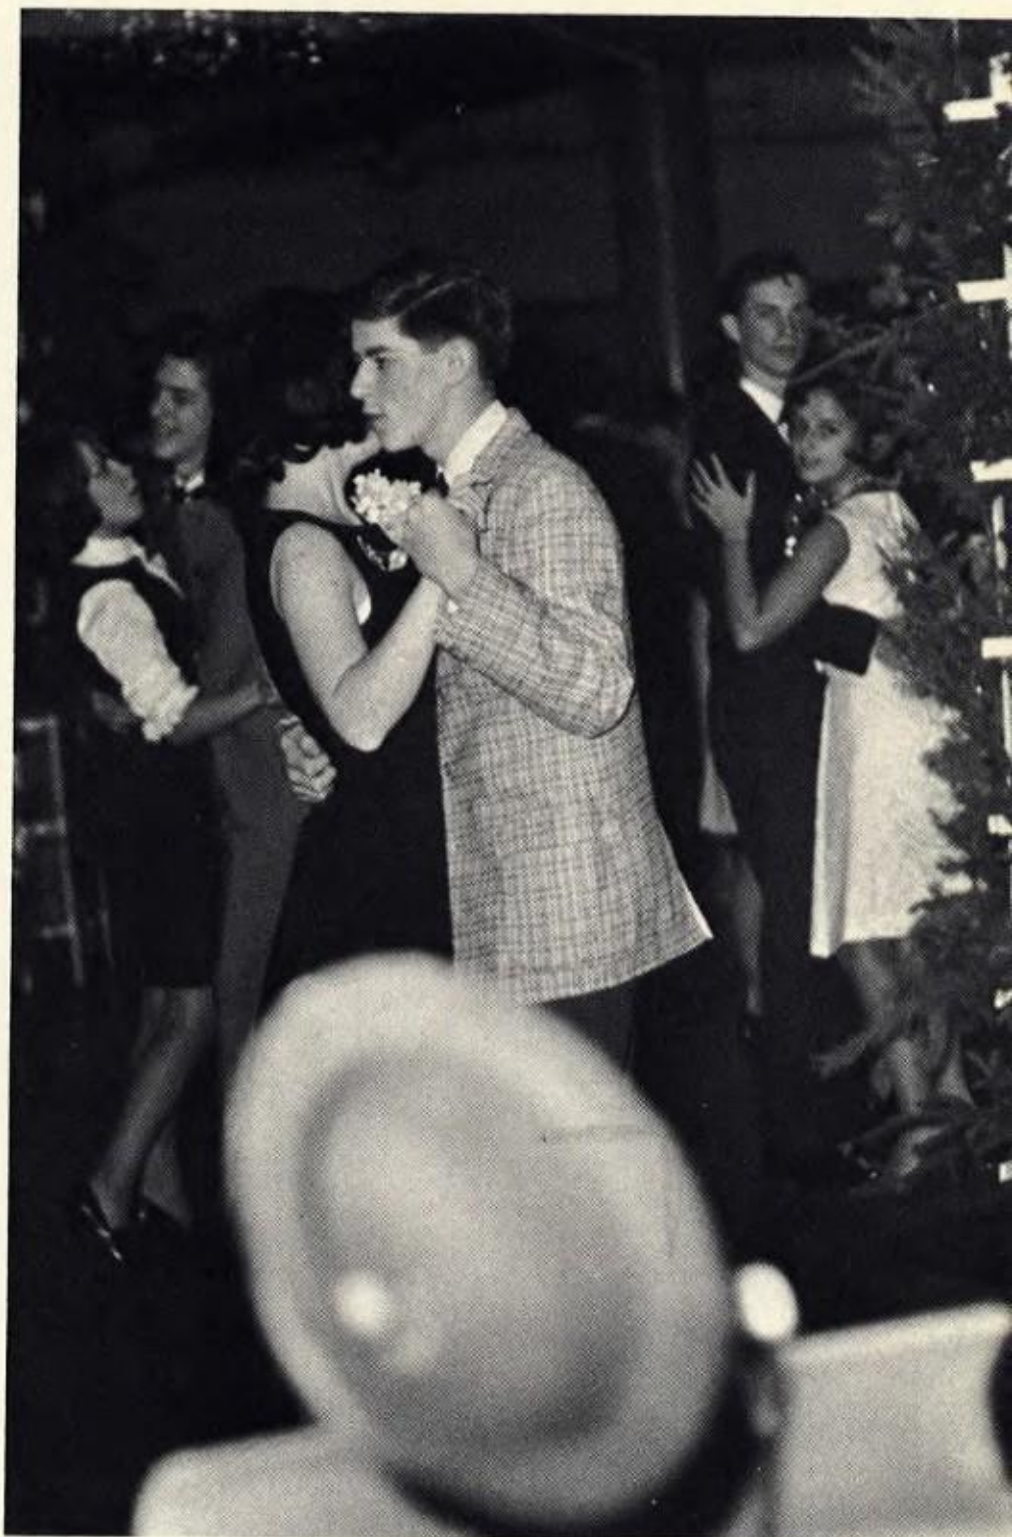

CHRISTMAS SEMI-FORMAL

During the chilly Christmas holidays, the cafeteria is almost miraculously transformed from an ordinary lunch room into a beautifully decorated ball-room. In this warm setting, junior and senior Spartans and their dates laugh, chat, and dance. This year the excellent music was provided by Wes Neal and his orchestra.

Jim Anderson is the center of attention.

Anyone for dancing?

"Getting to nose you."
They hoped to stay dry!

FARMERS' FORMAL

The Farmers' Formal is always a popular event with the seniors of Roger Bacon. In the setting of an old fashioned barn dance Dennis Scheidt and his date, Debbie Clark, were proclaimed Farmer Brown and Royal Rita. As they reigned, the rest of the farm lads and lasses had a "right good evnin."

Who are these seniors?

The Hillbilly Minuet

One, two, three, kick--oops!

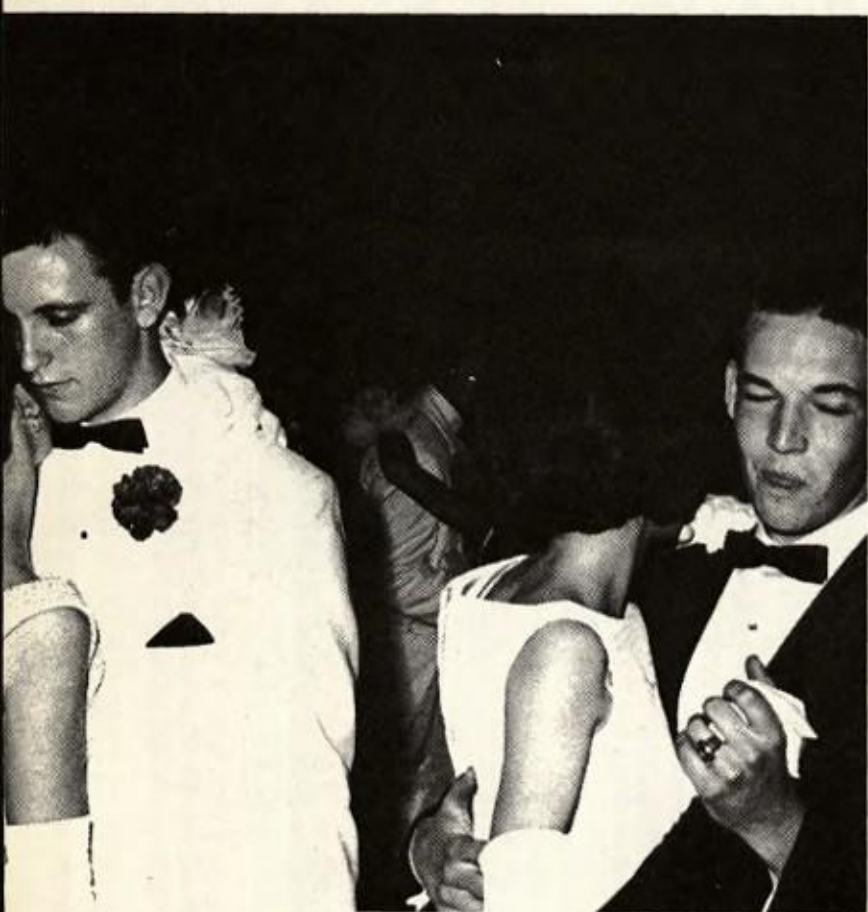

"Swing yore partner."

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The annual Spring Prom, presented by the Student Senate, was held on May 14th at the Sheraton Gibson Ballroom. The decorations and ballroom provided an excellent atmosphere for the theme, "Night in Paris." The Don Lackey Orchestra provided the music for this enchanting evening.

Just a little bit closer now.

Fr. Sylvester hands out prom favors.

This is better than football practice.

Prom King and Queen--Tom Rohling and Janet Jurgens.

All await the exciting moment.

The King and his court.

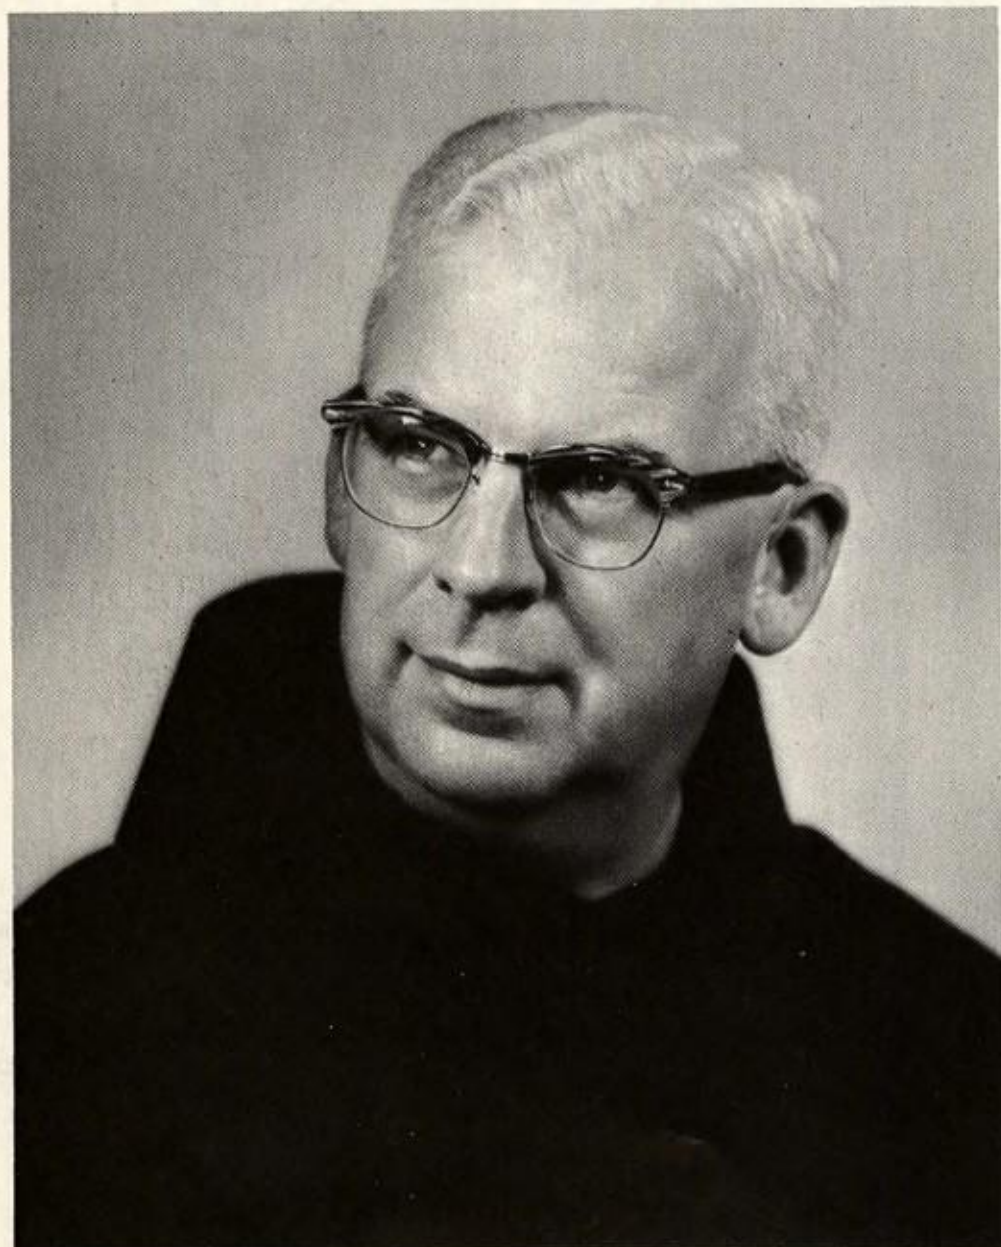

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

It is the task of the administration and faculty to provide the Christian atmosphere in which the student can mature. To this goal they have dedicated themselves; planning, counseling, instructing both inside and outside the classroom. The end product of their work, the graduated senior, the Christian man, is, to a great degree, their responsibility.

FATHER ANDREW FOX, O.F.M.

As Father Andrew departs from Roger Bacon High School the Faculty and Students extend to him their best wishes. For twenty-two years Father Andrew has devoted himself unsparingly to the task of forming Christian men from the boys who came to Roger Bacon. Nothing was ever too much for Father Andrew to do for his students. We earnestly hope that the total dedication of our principal to the cause of Christian education will continue to inspire us in the future.

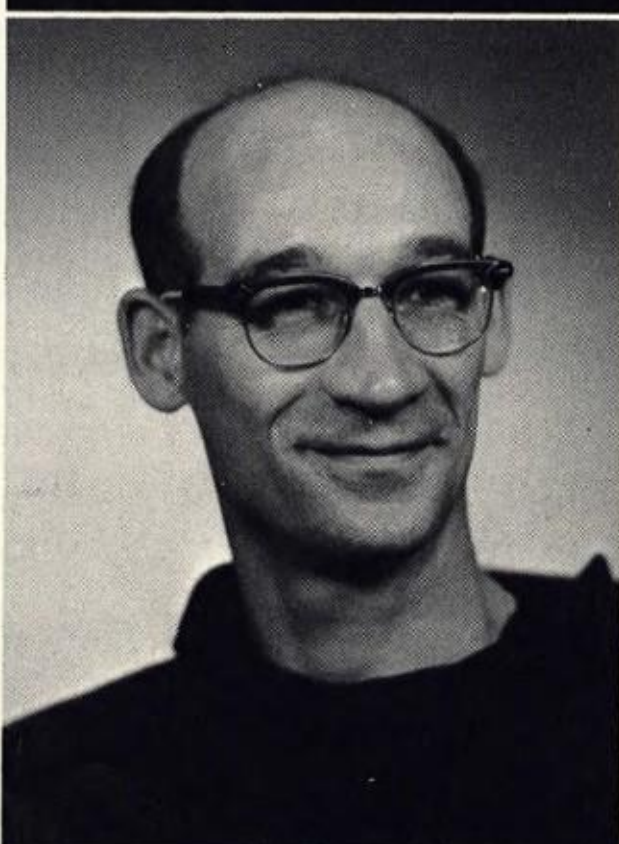

FATHER ERMIN WERLE, O.F.M.

On his twenty-fifth anniversary as a Franciscan priest, the Faculty and Student Body of Roger Bacon High School congratulate Father Ermin. An efficient vice-principal, a dedicated teacher, an excellent drama moderator, and a trustworthy friend . . . this is Father Ermin. With a deep spirit of gratitude, we sincerely thank Father Ermin for twenty-four years of service to the students of Roger Bacon. We earnestly pray that the ideals which Father Ermin has instilled in us will remain and grow in us.

FATHER LAURIAN RAUSCH, O.F.M.

Thirteen years ago a young Franciscan came to Roger Bacon to teach mathematics. In a very short time, students realized that they were fortunate indeed in having this person for their teacher. Intellectually orientated and spiritually motivated, Father Laurian, we are proud to say, has been appointed the new principal of our school. We welcome Father Laurian and we are grateful for his commitment to serve and guide the students of Roger Bacon High School.

THE COLLEGE

SENIORS

As the result of much work the seniors have developed their mental capacities to earn the titles of graduates of 1965. Now each mature Spartan approaches the world to fulfill the specific role which God has planned for him alone. No matter what that particular role may be it will involve the continued use of the graduate's abilities and talents in order that he may strive for his final goal, heaven.

ROGER BACON SENATE

The Roger Bacon Student Senate is the representative organization of the student body. Besides representing the students, the Senate fosters warranted student activities. This year the Senate sponsored the Christmas Semi-formal and the Spring Prom. The money received from the paper drives and car wash, which were sponsored by the Senate, was used to establish a scholarship to Roger Bacon for a worthy eighth grade boy.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Roger Bacon High School provides a large variety of training for the underclassman. In each task, be it large or small, which is asked of the underclassman it is he alone who must decide whether or not he will carry it out to the fullest. It is the acceptance of these tasks early in manhood which produces mature men—Spartans.

"Not just an extension... It's my very own line!"

"... And it's great! Now Dad can call home without getting a busy signal... and Mom... she says she almost forgot what it was like to pick up the phone and call somebody..."

It's easy to see why so many busy families are ordering second lines to handle teenage talkathons. This wonderful convenience is worth many times its little added cost.
